New York January 31 1884

Senor Don B Vicuña Mackenna.

Permit me to thank you for the courtesy and honor of your photograph and the sentiments of esteem with which it is accompanied, My library contains no work more valued than those which your genius has produced, the possession of which I owe to your courtesy.

Allow me to thank you for the interest you have always shown in the efforts of your colaborer in science and the considerate opinion you have always expressed of my inventions, As a slight return for your esteemed favor I take the liberty of emulating your courtesy by enclosing a photograph of myself. Thanking you again for your sentiments of friendship. I am with the renewed assurance of my most profound consideration

Very Respectfully yours
