Miss Doris Dana:

I'm a Chilean young man. I've studied English and I know it. I know ^{you} when you came to Chile with our dear Gabriela Mistral, when you passed by the train through my nice city. In that moment you wore spectacles.

I saw you and I want to correspond with you.

I'm fond of books, good movies, theatre and many other things.

I'd like to study Art Dramatics and to be, maybe some day like Sir Lawrence Olivier. I think some day I'll go to study to the United States.

My favourite authors are: W. Somerset Maugham, Ernest Hemingway and in theatre Tennessee Williams.

I'll be too happy if you answer my humble letter.

yours very truly J. Abufom
