Dear Sra. Mistral:

We have found it impossible to secure an adequate number of articles to make up the symposium of which I wrote you and rather than putting out an incomplete volume we have decided to give up the project. Your article has not arrived and I am therefore writing you to suggest that if you have already sent the article, we would like to place it in some magazine inasmuch as the book has been given up. If you have not yet had time to write it, it would probably be as well to let the matter go although I hope that you will be sending us some of your work which we can place in American periodicals.

I expect to be in Brazil in December and I hope that you will let me come and see you at that time.

Sincerely yours,

Hubert Herring
