Dear Dona Gabriela,

Miss Lois Williams at the Instituto Brasil-Estados Unidos tells me that she has in the library of the Instituto a book on South Carolina which contains a description of Charleston. If you will speak to her at the Instituto she will be glad to put the book at your disposal. I have checked on the year-round climate of Charleston in the World Atlas, and, as I thought, it is mild and agreeable. If I run across any more information about the city, I shall send it on to you.

Thank you very much for the telegram. It was very kind of you to think of sending it. I hope to see you again soon.

Cordially yours,

Charles Edward Eaton
