Dear Gabriela Mistral,

Somehow or other,
it seems more natural to address you by your pen name.

I hope you won't think my writing to you presumptuous, but you have given me so much joy and inspiration that I can't refrain from doing so.

I must confess that when I read the Nobel Prize in Literature had been won by a Chilean poet, Gabriela Mistral, you were only a name to me. As there is no adequate translation of your poems in English, I had never
