Dear Señorita Mistral -

My husband & I called at the Ambassador to see you, but it was the day after you checked out. Then I got your Sierra Madre address at the Consulate. Several years ago I became acquainted with your poetry, & read it on several occasions. I sent my book to Chile - "Los Angeles in Blockprint" - but probably it went astray.

We should like very much to have you & your secretary or hostess for an informal dinner, then have in for the evening a few teachers of Spanish whom I know.

Also, Mrs. Ruth Le Prade is very desirous of having you as a guest of honor on Easter afternoon in her Poets' Garden.
