Dear Miss Mistral:

Thank you for your letter of April 30th.
I hasten to send you a copy of your piece, as you requested, so that you may make the necessary corrections. Of course you understand that I shall be only too pleased to have you lengthen
the piece if you like.

Do you have any preference as to the translator of your essay?

Please be good enough to let me have some lines about yourself and your current activities for the section on contributors.

Sincerely,

Charles Neider
