

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

PERSONAL AND UNOFFICIAL.

My dear Senorita Godoy:

This introduces to You, Donn Purvis of the Division of Protocol, who from November 1, 1937 to December 31, 1945 served as Aide to the Chief of Protocol, the Honorable George T. Summerlin, who earlier in his career had served our Government in your country, which he knew well and loved his friends down there in Santiago.

This year since Mr. Summerlin's retirement, have been serving as Junior Assistant in the Consular Section of the Division, and it was "yours truly" who drafted the correspondence in connection with the issuance of the exequatur in the name of the President recognizing You as Consul of Chile at Los Angeles, California.

Enough for introduction, may I intrude upon your time to request the favor of your autograph on the June issue of the Pan American Bulletin, title page of article on Senorita Mistral, and also the honorable autograph of Chile's poetess on the enclosed card, which I will insert in my collection. The Bulletin pamphlet is being mailed to you under separate cover.

I do trust You will so honor my request and that it reaches you at the psychological moment and you will acquiesce, this good will gesture of yours will make an admirer very happy. With sincere thanks for the anticipated return of the autographed card and Bulletin.

Most cordially yours,

Donn Purvis
Donn Purvis.
