Señora

Gabriela Mistral
Chilean Consulate
Los Angeles, California

Apreciada Señora Mistral:

Although we are total strangers to each other I do believe we have some common acquaintances, and I hope you won't look at this letter as an imposition or anything of the sort.

Sister [Eliana de Montecinos] of Santiago Chile, wrote several times from Rio de Janeiro of your many kindness to her and her husband Sergio also of the admiration that she has for your work on Chilean culture & literature.

Now just recently I have had the pleasure of finding out that you have been transferred to the Los Angeles office of the Chilean Consulate.
And well I do put it badly but shortly it's not so far from Washington to California and a bit of Chile which to me (I selfishly enough) is a welcome breeze home. So I wonder if the opportunity should be mine to be in California early
