MILLS COLLEGE

My dear Señorita Mistral:

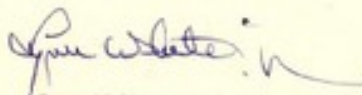

A year ago the Board of Trustees of Mills College, and I personally, greatly regretted that you were unable to be present at our commencement exercises to receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature which had been offered to you. This year the commencement of Mills College will be held on Sunday afternoon, June 8th, and it is with great pleasure that I renew the invitation of our Board of Trustees to be present on that occasion to receive the degree.

If you find it possible to come to Oakland at that time, will you please come to the President's House on our campus at 3:30 in the afternoon, to meet the Trustees and to go with them to the Greek Theatre, where the ceremonies will take place.

If you do not have your own academic cap and gown, will you please send your height and your hat size to my secretary, and we will supply them. Of course, it is customary in the giving of honorary degrees to present the hood to the person so honored.

After the exercises, Mrs. White and I hope that you will come back to our house for a very informal buffet supper and conversation.

Very sincerely,

Lynn White, Jr.
President
