Dear Senora Dona Gabriela Mistral-

I am taking the liberty of writing to you to make a very special request, which I only hope you shall grant me.

I have started a collection of autographed photographs of "Distinguished Poets" and would deem it both an honor and a pleasure to add your personally signed portrait to my very worthwhile collection, which wouldn't be complete without the inclusion of yours and would appreciate your making an exception of my request.

When you send it, please see that it is carefully wrapped - for in transit it is handled none too gently and don't want it bent or mutilated in any way.

You shall find International Coupons enclosed, in lieu of return postage.

In my sparetime I compose poetry and keep busy writing - since being disabled at Salerno. and would like to have this from you but don't mean to be of any undue trouble to you.

I have been on the look out for your books of verse and haven't been able to find any. If you have a copy of "Desolacion" 1922 or "Ternura" 1924 or "Tala" 1938 that you could send me or anything else that you would wish to send along to me so that I may become acquainted with your work, I would appreciate it and would make me very happy.
