Dear Miss Mistral:

Recently you have learned, through Miss Audrey Georgi, of our desire to have from you an article for use in our REVISTA ROTARIA and possibly also in our English edition, THE ROTARIAN. I now write you to confirm the request, and further to explain it.

* Senor Manuel Hinojosa-Flores, editor of REVISTA ROTARIA, has long been impressed by a short piece of yours, of which I enclose an English translation. This so effectively describes the basic principles of Rotary that he is keen on having an expansion of your thought in full article form. And I am confident that such a piece would prove as acceptable in English, for THE ROTARIAN.

Our articles usually run reasonably short, 1,500 to 2,000 words being the customary length, and for such a piece as described, we shall be glad to pay you a $100.00 honorarium.

* Enclosed herewith is a pamphlet descriptive of Rotary, but so that you may be acquainted with our publication, I shall send you under separate cover copies of both the Spanish and English editions, as well as a little book of reprints of articles that appeared in our magazine under the title of "Peace Demands Action".

Miss Georgi writes that you have been ill. I do hope that you have now recovered and that 1948 has begun auspiciously for you.

Sincerely yours,

Leland D. Case
