Dear Miss Mistral,

We have been referred directly to you by the director of the Hispanic Institute, in New York, about our request to publish your poem, "Dame la Mano." The poem was translated for us by Mrs. Catalina Mac Manus, and we hope to be able to print both her translation and the original.

Would it be possible for you to send us a note, which would give us permission to print the original of "Dame la Mano", since the director of the Institute tells us that all copyrights on the poem belong to you?

We should appreciate hearing from you about this at your earliest convenience.

Many thanks.

Sincerely,

Pearl Kazin
