Altrusa Club of Santa Barbara

Mar. 7, 1948

Dear Miss Mistral:

Many times since that lovely Saturday when I visited with you, Miss Salotti, and Miss Saleva, I have thought about you. Are you going to remain in Santa Barbara for a while longer?

That day I mentioned to you that the Altrusa Club would be so happy to have you three as our guests at our March 19th dinner meeting. Can you come and perhaps say a few words to us? You could come for the dinner and just remain to talk a bit to the group and then leave, if you like.

Afterwards I plan to give a book review of Lawton's "Aging Successfully" and the pamphlet by the same author entitled "Women Go to Work at Any Age".

If you can let me know by note or phone sometime this coming week I can make arrangements to have someone pick you up the night of the meeting.

I shall also return to you your book of poems. Thank you very much for permitting me to read them.

Sincerely yours,

Alice Torkelsen
