Dear Sir,

According to the Pan American Postal Franchise, you are permitted to send your letters without postage stamps "Consular Mail Free".

As a side-line to my stamp collection I am making a collection of envelopes which have been used in this way, and I am therefore sending copies of this letter to all the Embassies and Consulates of Latin American countries in the United States.

- 1) Will you please cooperate with this project of mine and be so kind as to send to me through the mail (so that it will be postmarked) such an envelope from your office.
- 2) On the front of this envelope please impress your official rubber-stamp with the emblem of your Republic.

I thank you in advance for your kind cooperation,
Sincerely yours,

F. A. Brofos,
Washington University,
St. Louis 5, Mo.

P.S.

Your Embassy in Washington, D.C. and Consulate General in New York have been kind enough to send me such an envelope from their office, so I hope you will not disappoint me.
