Dear Miss Mistral:-

My wife and I were thrilled, intrigued and delighted to read in the New York Times at the time that you have been awarded the Americas Award for 1950, for notable literary contributions, and that you were the winner of the Nobel Prize in 1945 for similar achievements, and we are happy to felicitate and congratulate you and your proud, worthy family, associates and friends, as well as wish for you all possible continued success and happiness. We like to take a warm personal interest and pleasure in all such delightful and noteworthy matters, and are indeed glad to offer you and yours our cordial greetings.

When I lived at St. Louis before coming here, one of my oldest and dearest friends was the late P. Ernest Cramer, Honorary Consul General for Chile and often represented him professionally in various Chilean law matters. We have met a number of your splendid countrymen and countrywomen, and regret that we do not know more of them. It would be nice to hear from you if agreeable and convenient.

Sincerely yours,

Harold Johnson
