Dona Gabriela Mistral
Vice Consulate General of Chile
Genoa, Italy

Dear Dona Gabriela:

I am sending you under separate cover a copy of my new book of poems, THE SHADOW OF THE SWINGER, which I thought you might like to see.

Since I left Rio de Janeiro, I have thought often of you and of the pleasant talks I had with you in Petropolis and in Rio. Perhaps you will remember that I was the Vice Consul at the American Embassy during the war and that I was working in the Cultural Relations Division. Those days seem very far away now, but I have very pleasant memories of them. I still hear from our mutual friends among the poets, Manuel Bandeira, Carlos Drummond de Andrade, Cecilia Meireles, Vinicius de Moraes, and others.

I hope that all goes well with you in Rapallo and that you are happy and are working well. Have ^{you} published a new book since I saw you in Brazil? If so, I should certainly like to know about it.

With cordial regards,

Charles Edward Eaton
