New York.

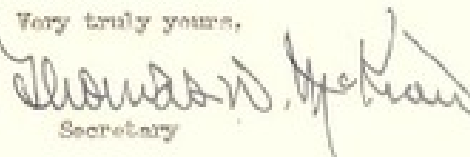

Dear Dr. Bates:

Thank you for the remittance of $4 which accompanied your communication of February 12, sent to complete credit on a membership in favor of Mr. Julio Enrique Arce, Calle Copernico 2312, Buenos Aires, Argentina.

We wish to assure you that on October 1, we received a remittance from Mrs. Castaneda de Arce in the amount of $6. Of this amount we used $5 to cover the 1953 membership dues of Mr. Julio Enrique Arce and applied $1 toward the fee for 1954. Sharply risen production and operating costs have necessitated an upward adjustment in the dues rate and although the annual membership fee for 1953 was $5, the fee for 1954 is $6. Under the circumstances we still require an amount of $1 to complete Mr. Enrique Arce's 1954 dues.

If you wish to send to us this small balance due prompt credit will be given immediately upon its receipt.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
