Dear Miss Dana:

Soon I will be in New York to do stories on New York Dress Institute, the fashion series of the noted designers. If you are there with Gabriela Mistral, your famous Chilean poet, I shall hope to do a special story.

It is difficult to get late information about her, so I am wondering if she is with United Nations as I have heard or representing Chile in some other manner....a marvelous personality.

Mr. Sahlin and I have spoken of you both many times. He has illustrated a book that is said to be the most important of the Latin American comprehensive writings.

I'd be so happy if you will write me a brief sketch of what is being done in New York and also let me know where I can reach you by letter. Arriving in New York July 10, according to my schedule, I will be at 277 Park ave, c/o my friend, Mrs. Florence Root. She has been there a long time, I have been there numerous summers and her telephone number is in the book.

It was a great pleasure to be with you that afternoon at tea. Shortly after I had a bone fracture and was in the hospital for numerous weeks, that is why I did not get to New York last summer.

Best remembrances and sincerely yours
