Dear Miss Mistral,
The St. John Cantius
English class including myself, wish to tell you how deeply impressed we were with your poem
"The Little Girl Who Lost Her Finger."

In discussing your poem a little more thoroughly we began to question the purpose you wished to express in this poem. The students made many conclusions which were very good.
The purpose of my letter is to find out from you, Miss Mistral, what you meant to bring out in this well-loved poem. We will appreciate any information you may give us.

Gratefully,
Barbara Mihalic and the English I. Class.
