Dear Gabriela:

Please forgive me for writing in English. I am feeling too rushed and agitated today even to try to express myself in Spanish.

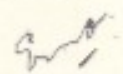

Mother and I are driving out to California again this year. She will go by train from Pasadena to Piedmont, where my sister lives, and I shall follow later in my car. Unless something unexpected turns up, I shall drive from Pasadena to Santa Barbara on Saturday, February 19th. The friend with whom I visited last year has asked me to stay with her again, though we have not set a date; and I wish very much to have some time with you again.

Walter H. Harty

Perhaps you and Connie will lunch with me at some pleasant quiet place on the Sunday, February 20th.

I have just proudly given a note of introduction to my friend Miss Elizabeth Wallace. She is a lovely person of almost eighty, she was born in Bogota and her Spanish is exquisite; she is a poet, has written a book on Sor Juana de la Cruz, and she has translated poems of yours. I know you will enjoy each other and I am so happy to be able to bring you together.

Always with love for you and Connie
