OFFICE OF THE DEAN

April 9, 1946

Miss Gabriela Mistral
Consulate of Chile
Los Angeles, California

Dear Miss Mistral:

On my return from a government mission to Japan, I am delighted to learn that you are going to permit us to give a reception in your honor on the evening of Tuesday, May 7th.

May we have the pleasure of entertaining you in that guest suite which you occupied, I think, some years ago while you were teaching here as Visiting Professor? The rooms will be free during the time when you are to be in New York and we should be happy to have you occupy them, unless, of course, you prefer to stay with friends in another part of the city.

Looking forward eagerly to your visit, I am, with warm regards,

Sincerely yours,

Virginia C. Gildersleeve.
