

SECRETARY-GENERAL

19 December 1955

Dear Madame Mistral,

First of all let me thank you again for the Human Rights Day when you gave us the privilege of listening to your message and to meet you. For me it also provided a welcome occasion to pay you our tribute.

Now I write only in order to wish you a good Christmas and a happy New Year. I hope that 1956 will bring us some little distance in the direction indicated by the ideals to which you have given such beautiful expression.

I remember with gratitude your kind invitation and I shall be happy to come and see you when, some time, you would like me to do so.

I thank you very much for your kind Season's Greetings.

With warm regards.

Yours sincerely

Dag Hammarskjöld
