Dear Mr. Sweetser:

The Sra. Patricia Guillen de Nicolau has just sent me copies of two letters from Connie, the one you sent her on January 28, 1950, inquiring whether she had received the check No. 7039 drawn on the Chemical National Bank of New York, and the other in answer, saying that she had not received the check.

As you say that the bank through which it was sent in Santa Barbara has found that the check has not been paid, we are confident that ~~that~~ you are having it traced through the banks and the post office.

It is most unfortunate that this new phase enters to cause us to wait for the final termination of the sale and transactions. I am sure that you feel as we do.

Gabriela is leaving for Italy in the first part of March, and we hope that with your help the matter will be brought to its logical end, with the money in Connie's hands and the legalized receipt in Gabriela's.

Please, my dear Mr. Sweetser, do everything to trace the check and obtain the receipt from Connie.

Should ^{we} stop the payment of the check in the bank here in Mexico? Please advise us.

Everything is going very well with us in Cuernavaca, a beautiful place when one knows it... With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Eda Ramelli
