Señorita Gabriela Mistral, 1305 Buena Vista Street,
Monrovia, California.

My dear Señorita:

I enclose a copy of the translation of AMPOLA CALIFORNIANA which you sent me. I have also sent a copy to Miss Frances Barbour for the publication which they are going to bring out this spring at the Southern Illinois State Normal University.

I had hoped before now to receive an answer to my letter written a month ago, February 19, to your secretary, Señorita Saleva, saying I would like to be put in touch with your agent in New York. I had understood from her letter that you would be in favor of my undertaking to translate for an anthology of your work in English.

While waiting for a reply, I have been at work making translations from your book TALA which you sent me, and I have about completed some fifteen poems. These with those already made for the university in Illinois will make about Thirty poems towards the anthology which you say New York publishers are anxious to bring out.

I shall continue my work on your poems in TALA, but I would like to get in touch with your New York agent as soon as possible, so I should be very grateful if your kind secretary would send me by return mail a letter introducing me to your agent or publisher in New York, which would authorize me to take the matter up with him.

With kind regards,

Very sincerely yours,

Eleanor L. Turnbull
