Dear Laureate,

Allow me to congratulate you from my own -n distant land (though belated owing to war conditions) on your winning the Nobel Prize for the year 1945. It is suffice to add that you have contributed not only to the store of knowledge but increased the welfare of humanity through the medium of culture. I feel a kindeed spirit in your good self for I am also a devoted student of culture and my first book of publication called "Thought-Ray" (English poems) has been accepted by Bodleian Library, Oxford, thankfully received by Harvard University-U.S.A. and recently placed at the Nobel Library at the direction of the Nobel
