Dear Madam Gabriela

It is now some time since we had news of you & dear pin pin we sincerely hope that you are both well & that you are not feeling the cold too much.

Here we have not had it too cold so far but of course there is still some but is usually a terrible month.

How is G. getting on in his new English school does he like it? I hope that he has not forgotten his Italian; how is it that he does not write has he forgotten us, Nanna would be so pleased to hear from him.

We received a telegram from Palma for the new year, has she already arrived in Spain or is she still in Mexico? I do not know where to write to her.

I hope you received my letter of Dec last also your brown leather purse which I posted to you before X-mass. Nanna is well & is always sitting near the stove. Mary is also well, Alice is teaching & is now busy preparing for her examination, little Maria is always studying very hard & my sister Vic & brother-in-law
