Flensburg, Jan 1, 1947

In a local newspaper I found a little poem of yours "Throw the Seed", which fits our poor, hungry German people and I have the intention of putting it into music for a four-voiced chorus. I request therefore most courteously your permission you to give me permission for the use of your text. I am an old choral director, I have swung the baton for forty years and had to lay it down during the war, because and I my three sons were not members of the Party". In spite of the terrible time of distress I have again picked up the same and direct the chorus of a
