Dear Miss Mistral,

Only to-day I was able to tell our Ambassador, Count Caramini, that you had kindly accepted to lunch with me on Wednesday 27. Since he would be delighted to meet you, he suggests that, instead of having lunch at the Clarendon's, you and I should have lunch with him at the Embassy, 4 Grosvenor Square, at 1.15, the same day.

Looking forward to seeing you, I am Yours sincerely

E. Ruffini
