Dear Mrs. Bradley:

I greatly regret that you should have such a tardy reply to your letters of May 8 and June 20. Due to my travels and a succession of incompetent secretaries, these have just come to my attention.

I have always had very good relations with the Young Women's Christian Association in all the South American countries and regret very much that due to my limitations of time and strength I cannot write an article for you. But I will gladly send you a few lines.

Please pardon my late reply, and believe me, with all good wishes, to be

Sincerely yours,

Gabriela Mistral
