Madam and Dear Colleague:

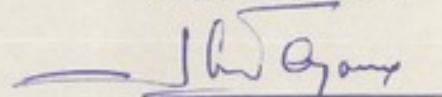

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of December 16th, 1947, addressed to Mr. Alexandre de MANZIARLY, French Consul in Los Angeles, who is at present away on a trip, in which you ask him to send you some publications from France on Art and Literature.

I am happy to send you herewith some periodicals which may be of help to you for the articles you are planning to write on France.

In case you wish to have additional documentation, you can get in touch with Mr. René de MESSIERES, Cultural Counselor at the French Embassy, 610 Fifth Avenue, New York, unless you prefer me to request it myself, which I would be glad to do.

Remaining at your disposal for any further assistance in this matter, and sending you my very best wishes for the New Year, I am,

Respectfully yours,

Michel J.C. Varnoux
Vice-Consul

P.S. I am sending the publications by parcel post under separate cover as they are too bulky to enclose herewith.
