Dear Miss Godoy:

In response to your letter of September 17, 1949, we are inclosing a new signature card which should be signed by you and also by Miss Doris Shepherd Dana, so that the checking account may be made joint. It is not necessary that the card be signed in the presence of an American Consul.

We are also sending you a yellow authorization card which should be signed and returned to us with the white card.

Very truly yours,
