My dear friends:

Although I suppose that what they say in the papers is more or less the same as what they say here because today the relations and allegiances are all from the United States, I would send you some reports relative to the situation in Argentina.

They say in the papers that it is impossible mentally to control Peron and the installation of a military government.
But this is not governing by a military junta - with Peron at the head - as they say but they say that they are factually with the rebels, that is to say
