Dear Lady,

I am taking the liberty of enclosing with this letter a copy of my book, THE MODERNIST TREND IN SPANISH-AMERICAN POETRY, published in 1934. In it you will find translated a number of your own poems, which I greatly admire.

I have just completed translations of a number of more recent poems by Chilean poets. These I hope to publish soon. The poets and the poems I have chosen are listed on the accompanying sheet. As a great favor I should like to ask whether you would be so kind as to write a short foreword (possibly about two hundred words) for this collection.

In the United States there is a great and growing interest in Spanish-American poetry, and I feel that your commendation of this volume would be highly appreciated.

With all good wishes,
your sincere admirer,

G. Dundas Craig
