Dear Madame:

Professor John Eaglekirk of Tulane University, who is now attached to the United States Embassy at Rio de Janeiro, has been trying without success to reach you by mail. He would like to include the following poems from your DESOLACION in AN ANTHOLOGY OF SPANISH AMERICAN LITERATURE, which is being prepared by a Committee sponsored by the Instituto Internacional de Literatura Iberoamericana:

DESOLACION (1922)

La Maestra rural
El niño solo
Neciendo
Yo no tengo soledad
Piececitos
Sueñidades
Ruth
Los sonetos de la muerte
El ruego
In memoriam
Tres arboles

Mr. Eaglekirk has not been able to reach you in Chile. He is under the impression that you are in the United States, and since your address may be obtained from Professor Arturo Torres-Riosco, I am taking the liberty of forwarding this letter to him with the request that he send it to you if your address is available to him.

Will you kindly let us know whether we may have your permission to use the selections mentioned above? We assure you that such permission will be greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,

F. S. Crofts
