New York City

Dear Miss Georgi:

It is important that I get together with you and Miss Mistral immediately in connection with the publication of her poems in English.

The reason is that it will take quite some time for her work to be translated adequately. Poetry is not like prose - it requires a re-evocation of mood, not just a carrying over of words into another language, and we should like Mr. Welsh to get started as soon as possible so that we may bring the volume out at an early date.

If you and Miss Mistral are rushed right now, I'd be happy to confer with you over lunch or dinner.

Please give me a ring - Plaza 8-1067.

Cordially yours,

Frederick Drimmer
