Dear Senora Mistral:

I was very pleased, indeed, to receive your letter of June 5th and hope that you will soon be settled in your post and will have time to give full consideration to the publication of a book in the United States. Our interest remains as great as ever and I shall welcome the opportunity to discuss further details with you.

Meanwhile I hope and trust that you received the books I sent you as examples of Random House publishing.

Looking forward to hearing from you again, I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

Harry E. Maule
