Mrs. Lucila Godoy (Gabriela Mistral)
C/o The Chilean Consulate
San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Ms. Godoy,

In connection with a course on poetry which I give here I made a selection of poets and poems to which I wished to draw attention. I am planning to publish some of these poems in an anthology intended primarily for preachers and church leaders. My cousin, Dr. James H. McLean of Santiago, sent me translations which he had made of your poems: HYMN FOR THE DAY, and THE TEACHER'S PRAYER. I should like very much to include these poems in my anthology and hope that this may meet with your kind approval.

We were glad to read that you were awarded the Nobel prize and rejoice in your great success.

Sincerely yours,

James S. Morrison

P.S. As I do not know your address for sending this C/o. the Chilean Consulate in S. Francisco, trusting it will be farious. Not having any Chilean Stamps I am enclosing $1⁰⁰ U.S.A. currency to cover postage.
