Copy for Miss Mistral

30 January 1947

Dear Mr. Bandy:

Miss Mistral is complimented by your wish to have her make a recording of LA ORACION DEL MAESTRO but unfortunately, her present commitments are such that she is not in a position to take advantage of your offer.

You may, in the future, be interested in making recordings of the works of other authors whom we have privileged to represent so we would appreciate information pertaining to sums you pay for the making of reproductions and whether you offer a royalty. We assume that platters can be made in various parts of the United States and that it would not be necessary for an author to visit Atlanta for that specific purpose.

Yours sincerely,

Armitage Watkins
