My dear Mr. Watkins:

Miss Mistral has requested me to inform you that she is entirely in accord with your letter of April 2nd.

A long time ago Miss Turnbull has asked Miss Mistral her permission to publish few translations in a magazine to be dedicated to Miss Mistral by the Southern Illinois Normal University at Carbondale, Illinois. Attached to this letter were two small pamphlets advertising two Anthologies of translations by Miss Turnbull published by the Johns Hopkins University Press. With that information both Miss Mistral and I felt that her translations were reliable. However, when we received some of Miss Turnbull's translations I also doubted of the quality of her work and I advised Gabriela to write to her to see if she would be willing to have Miss Eda Ramelli, Head of the Romance Languages Dept. at Santa Barbara College, and Miss Mistral go over her translations.

Miss Mistral wants me to thank you so much for your seal in this matter and she will get in touch with you as soon as she hears from Miss Turnbull.

I am enclosing herewith the two scripts.

I am sorry to inform you that Miss Mistral health is still very poor and that her Doctor has made her cancelled her appointments with the Department of State and the Library of Congress. She expects to move to Santa Barbara about the middle of next month.

Sincerely yours,

Consuelo Saleva
