Re: Publication Poesias by Gabriela Mistral

Gentlemen:

Thank you for your letter of August 7th. I have just returned from a rather lengthy stay in Europe. Before I left I had told Miss Joan Daves that Miss Mistral's Will had been probated, and that I could sign any contract agreeable to the Estate.

I have not seen the draft of the proposed contract which you must have sent to Miss Daves. I have written to her about this matter, and trust I will be in communication with her within the next few days. If the contract is acceptable there would be no reason why we cannot go ahead with the plans for the publication of Gabriela Mistral's complete poetical works. If Miss Daves has not been sent the draft of your proposed contract, then I hope you will send it to her as soon as possible.

Thank you for your patience, and be assured that you will hear from Miss Daves in a short time.

Yours Very Truly,

Doris Dana, Executrix
Estate of Gabriela Mistral
