Dear Doris,

This will be a shortie, I'm sorry, but life, she is slightly hectic at the moment. I'm trying to get into shape to take off for a month in Europe by the beginning of September; it seems like it will be tomorrow....

Your new house sounds divine. And while I cannot take you up on your nice invitation before my trip, I hope it'll still be in force when I get back sometime in October. The country around there is wonderful in Fall,-- I know. Are the stables empty??? If there is a horse around, or two, you won't be able to get rid of me once I come up!

What I am wondering is: what are you doing with yourself in the deep country. Working? On what? Oh well, maybe I will have a chance to check up on you before long....

||| I've written to Aguilar, as per enclosed copy. Let's see what happens. No reason not to deposit the check we sent you; their original transfer was accepted and your holding the check we issued will make no difference (except drive our accountant to distraction, maybe).

Here's the Indiana University check; you can see it's small. They don't seem to be very effective in their distribution and I certainly would advise against our going back to them for any other publication of Gabby's work. Agree?

I have still more POESIAS COMPLETAS for you. Want them? Sent up to Pound Ridge?

Thanks for the glossies; we shall keep them in the files and surely they will come in useful sooner or later.

It's good to know where you are; see you later this year; now that we are not neighbors any more, it seems safe to count on that, at least!

Love,

Joan
