Dear Senor Aguilar,

The bilingual edition of Gabriela Mistral's SELECTED POEMS edited and translated by Doris Dana has now been published in this country. To date, we have had only a few advance notices, but they have all been superlative.

The edition was published here simultaneously in hardcover and paperback, and today we are sending you by air a copy of the softbound edition with our compliments. Miss Dana mentioned quite some time ago that she has been discussing with you the possibility of her editing a newly selected group of Mistral poems for publication by you. You might like to look at the American edition with this project in mind. If the grouping of the poems seems suitable to your needs, you might consider publishing the Spanish poems only, together with the various commentaries and introductions.

I shall look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Joan Daves/ek
