Dear Senor Aguilar,

You may be interested to know that the recording of Gabriela Mistral's reading her own poems has now been completed and is available over here. Miss Dana will mail you a copy of the recording.

Your own records of authors reading their own works are most impressive and are, I hope, a good success. Miss Dana reports that she has seen the records everywhere in shops when she recently was in Puerto Rico. If you feel that the record made at the Library of Congress might fit into your series, do let me know. We can easily work out an arrangement since we have retained all rights for distribution in all Spanish language areas.

Sincerely,

Joan Daves/ek

J. Daves.
