Gentlemen,

We acknowledge with thanks receipt of your letter dated May 26 regarding Gabriela Mistral's POESIAS COMPLETAS. We have duly noted the information which you gave us regarding the various editions of POESIAS COMPLETAS but we do request that you please amplify this by giving us detailed information of how many copies were printed for each new edition.

Further, we really must ask you again to take action in regard to my letter dated May 26 with which I advise you that the payment due to us as per September 30, 1971 has not been received. We must insist that the check which you say was sent to an old address of ours is traced and that the correct amount is paid to us as the estate's agent.

There are a number of very nice projects involving some prose works of Gabriela Mistral which I should have liked to discuss with you first of all publishers in the Spanish-language area. But you will understand, I hope, that we can only consider doing new contracts together when overdue obligations on the old ones have been taken care of.

I shall look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Joan Daves/bp
