Dear Joan,

I just returned from a two-day visit with Thomas Merton in the Abbey of Gethsemani and a six-day visit with John Howard Griffin ("Black Like Me") in Fort Worth. It was all glorious, and I long to tell you about it!

Anyway, that will explain the delay in getting the Permission Forms back to you for Holt, Rinehart and Winston.

The three poems are all relatively short. All three poems were first published in "Desolacion", Columbia University, New York City, Instituto Hispanico; 1922.

I am enclosing both copies of the Permission Form unsigned since I take it the applicant is supposed to sign. Correcto?

I'll be in Washington from the 26th of January until February 2nd. If Frei does not get out of his bind with the Chilean Senate, I will be home earlier - probably the 29th.

Love,

Doris Dana
