Dear Doris,

I have had billet doux from Antonio Frasconi: he is back at work, anxious to start on the finished woodcuts but still stymied because we don't know as yet the format of the book-to-come. I have written Jack Goellner a note and hope to get some schedule from him; the sample pages should be available by now.

Someone from the publishers was in touch with me yesterday, requesting some biographical material on you. I think you should set up at least one page of biographical information. Make it long and gorgeous; I can always edit out what I feel may not be pertinent.

Love,
Joan
