Miss Lisa Johns
Publicity Manager
The Johns Hopkins Press
Baltimore, Maryland

Dear Miss Johns:

My sincere apologies for not having gotten these pages off to you sooner. Before I go any further, let me congratulate you on the nice piece you wrote for the catalogue. I thought it was excellent.

I've sent the photographs to Margot Schutt, so you should have them by now. Please let me know which you would like to use for book jacket, publicity, etc. They are numbered on the backs.

The biographical notes, both for Gabriela and myself, will come to you soon through Joan Daves's office.

In the enclosed Promotion Questionnaire, please take special note of my remarks about Mr. Alvear and the CLUB DEL LIBRO EN ESPAÑOL, INC. here in New York City. When you get in touch with him, and I hope you will do so immediately, please refer to the phone call I made to him a few weeks ago as Executrix for Gabriela's Literary Estate. At that time he expressed a strong interest in using a Spanish book of Gabriela's for his Club -- and indicated that he would be interested in this bilingual edition also if it could be worked out soon. Be sure to tell him about Antonio Frasconi's woodcuts.

Many thanks, and I'll be in touch with you again soon.

Sincerely,

Doris Dana

P.S. I'm sending a copy of this to Mr. Don Wisdom of the Library of Congress in case it works out that the recording comes out at the same time as the book.
