Dear Miss Dana:

I wonder whether you were able to get through to Joan Daves the night we talked, and if yes, what her response was.

We are, as you know, most eager to do the book. It would be splendid if the negotiations could be completed soon and if we could look forward to the manuscript. I say this selfishly because I am so eager to read your translations.

With all best wishes.

Sincerely,

(Miss) Margot Schutt
