Re: SELECTED POEMS OF GABRIELE MISTRAL

Dear Doris,

I had a most conciliatory letter from our friend, Goellner of The Johns Hopkins Press and a revised contract. I believe everything is in good shape now, and I am sending along two copies to you for your perusal, your initials, and your signature.

If you have any questions do get in touch.

The agreement with Mr. Francini looks alright to me, also, and I have forwarded copies to him for his signature.

How nice I would be to have these agreements done with. I hope that the final manuscript is shaping up to your satisfaction.

Affectionately,

Joan

P.S. I think that I will make Goellner delete the addendum on the last page of the agreement. Since you are not a party to the agreement between the Library of Congress and the Johns Hopkins University nor know under what terms it was entered into, it seems pointless to have a reference to it in the agreement between yourself and the Press.
